NATIONAL LEAGUE

Philadelphia, May 5.—The Phillies won from New York yesterday by the score of 5 to 2. Of the five games played by these clubs the locals have won four. With Mathewson in the box, the first game for him this year, the New Yorkers had high hopes of taking the last game of the series. But Matty was not so good yesterday. He was touched up for eight hits in six innings and his failure to locate the plate was also expensive for the visitors.

After the Phillies had taken the lead for the second time in the game in the sixth inning Matty was taken to the stable and Bugs Raymond was hurried up. The game was able to score two more runs in the innings in which he pitched. The score: New York 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—3—10—0 Philadelphia 5 0 0 1 2 2 0—7—3—2 Batteries: Mathewson, Raymond and Schief; Moren and Dooin.

Brooklyn, May 5.—An even break was reported between the Brooklyn and Boston at Washington Park yesterday. The Doves being the victors in the first part of the double sketch. In the second game, after feeding on barren ground for five innings, the Brooklyn pulled themselves together and knocked it around the bases five times which settled that game then and there. The first game was stubborn and scrappy, the Brooklyn being in it until the last man was out. Pitcher Hunter was doing nobly for the Brooklyn until he hurt himself in the fourth inning trying to field a ball. Rucker took his place in the fifth and the Doves welcomed Nap with divers and robust hits.

Old Doc Scanlan was in good form in the second game, and while the Boston scored first they had hard edging all the way. The score: First Game. Boston 0 0 0 0 4 0 2 6—7—2—4 Brooklyn 2 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—3—9—1 Batteries: Chappelle, White and Smith; Hunter, Rucker and Bergen.

Second Game. Boston 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 0—2—5—1 Brooklyn 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0—5—2 Batteries: Linderman and Howerman; Scanlan and Dunn.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York, May 5.—The Highlanders had their easy yesterday on the top walloping the Athletics 11-5. The New Yorks batted around in both the fourth and seventh innings when they made all their runs. Schiltzen was taken out in the fourth and replaced by Rube Vickers, who was hit hard. Quinn did not have to exert himself to hold the Phillies. The score: Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 2 0—3—8—5 New York 0 0 0 6 0 5 0—11—12—0 Batteries: Schiltzen, Vickers and Thomas and Lapp; Quinn and Blair.

Boston, May 5.—Washington shut out Boston in a pitcher's battle yesterday afternoon. The game was a walk in the third inning, allowing Milan to score from third. The score: Boston 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0—3—3 Washington 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—1—2—0 Batteries: Morgan and Spencer; Tannehill and Street.

St. Louis, May 5.—The Browns yesterday finally broke their long losing streak by defeating Detroit, 4 to 2. The score: Detroit 2 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—3—10—0 St. Louis 4 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—4—2—0 Batteries: Brown and Lapp; Quinn and Blair.

FLASHES FROM THE FIELD DANDY DIAMOND DOINGS

In Springfield to-day.

Next game here on Friday with Northampton as opponents.

Bridgeport is sorely in need of one good pitcher.

Manager O'Rourke has let Pitcher Powell walk the plank. Powell pitched in but one game, that in Holyoke last week when he allowed eleven bases on balls after Pollard had given five.

Manager Bone of the New Haven team was on the bench with his players yesterday, abusing them after every misplay, in the full view of the spectators. One of the players wanted to know what good was George's science.

The young man with the name like a Turkish cigarette, who pitched for New Haven came in for three hits. Pretty nifty work for a pitcher. Reiselgi has two left feet, which may in a way count for his luck in getting by up to the sixth inning.

Captain Phelan used poor judgment yesterday in not putting either Gibbs or Pollard into the game in place of Romer after the seventh inning. Romer had nothing on the ball, it being but pure luck that the locals won out.

Where is the pitcher that the Orators can depend upon in a pinch. Right field has been out all right, and the fans are becoming interested. It's now up to Manager O'Rourke to get a pitcher that will steady the team and make them pennant probabilities.

Christy Mathewson got back in the game for the Giants yesterday but could not stop the downward progress of that team. They are now occupying the cellar position with the Brooklyn in the National league.

The teams of the Connecticut league had better get out themselves or Hartford will have such a commanding lead that all interest in the outcome will be lost. Bridgeport plays the Senators in their town on Saturday.

Pitcher McCarthy has been given a week's leave of absence by Manager O'Rourke because of the illness of his wife who has just undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Havana has won the pennant in the Cuban league. The team finished one game ahead of the Almendares, when the season closed. There was a tie game between these two clubs which was not played off, and now the Almendares want it played. The latter club is fighting the matter in the courts.

The Pirates have a young pitcher in Adams who will bear watching. He drew about the toughest task in the National League in Minor League, but shut him out 1 to 0 in eleven innings.

Yesterday was sure a lucky day for the Tanks. While they were belaboring the Athletics the Browns rubbed it into Detroit and Washington nosed out Boston in a 1 to 0 verdict.

It's safe betting that "Rube" Waddell celebrated last night. He downed the Tigers, which is always a signal for some of the red light stuff. By the way, it appears that good left-handers should bother Jennings more than ever. Proof—Doc White and Rube.

Detroit 11 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2—5—0 St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—4—9—1 Batteries: Summers and Stange; Waddell and Criger.

Cleveland, May 5.—Cleveland stopped Smith's winning streak yesterday, winning from the Chicago, 10 to 2. The score: Cleveland 2 0 0 2 1 3 2—10—13—1 Chicago 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—2—4—1 Batteries: Young and Clarke; Smith and Sullivan.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

At a meeting of the Second Industrial League held last evening the T. P. Taylor team was dropped from membership and the team of the Cornwall & Patterson Mfg. Co. was admitted in their place. President Thomas McNamara, who has just returned from his wedding trip, was in the chair and was warmly welcomed by his associates. It was planned to open the league May 24 instead of June 5, as was at first decided. The next meeting of the league will be held May 10.

The Union Typewriter team of the Industrial League will play their last practice game Saturday when they will have as their opponents the South Union. The game will be played on Burnham field and will be called at 3 o'clock.

Manager George Ellsworth of the Crane Co. No. 1 team is without a game for Saturday and would like to hear from the Lincoln or North Ends.

The A. B. C. team met last night and chose Ted Stelling manager. This team would like a game for Sunday at Brooklawn with the McNamara clerks.

The Birdsey-Somers Co. team of the Second Industrial League would like to arrange a game with the Bullards or Holmes & Edwards for Saturday, May 8. Answer through the Farmer.

Manager Pitt of the Bullard team has arranged the following games: Saturday, May 8, the office team of the Crane Valve Co. No. 2 against the Birdsey-Somers Co. They will arrange games with other teams for later dates.

If you want to feel well, look well and be well, take Foley's Kidney Remedy. It tones up the kidneys and bladder, purifies the blood and restores health and strength. Pleasant to take and contains no harmful drugs. Why not commence to-day? F. B. Brill, local agent.

Our old friend Moriarty, of the Tigers, was off his feed yesterday, and Charlie O'Leary played third base for the champions.

That a pitcher cannot work all the time and work well was demonstrated in yesterday's game at Cleveland. The Naps pounded Frank Smith all over the pasture for a 10 to 2 victory. Stovall and Lajole got three hits apiece and Clarke, Finchman and Birmingham bases on balls after Pollard had given two each.

He may get his bumps now and then, but Cy Young is far from all in. The old coddler let the White Sox down with four hits yesterday.

Eastern clubs should borrow a leaf from the books of the Westerners. Cleveland and Chicago yesterday occupied in scoring a dozen runs in the legitimate distance. Chicago and Pittsburgh played eleven innings in 1:37.

Keep your eye on this fellow Tris Speaker, who plays center field for Boston. He hails from Little Rock, but plays as if he always lived in the majors.

"Stoney" McGilgyn refused to be counted out. His work with Milwaukee this spring has been the most sensational of his career. He has four consecutive shutouts to his credit, his latest triumph a 4 to 0 victory over St. Paul Monday.

The Athletics are wearing a "little knot of crepe on their breasts in remembrance of their great catcher, "Doc" Powers.

We are for an agitation looking toward the discovery of a new wet ball which shall be known as the "extemporaneous splitter." Most spit-ball pitchers gum the ball and then stop to do their thinking. Let us have some spit-ball pitchers for it seems we must have the wet ball—who can spit and think at the same time.

Pitcher Ed Walsh, of the Chicago-American League team, was called to Wilkes Barre to-day on account of the death of his brother, David, killed yesterday in a mine accident at Plains, near Wilkes Barre. Ed Walsh, the mainstay of the White Sox pitching staff, had left to join his club only a few days ago. He was ready to work for the sorely crippled Sox, though he had not yet been put in good standing by the National League. Walsh will leave for the West again the end of the present week. David Walsh was well known around Wilkes-Barre as one of the best amateur players of this part of the State. He never played the game professionally.

Four Fordham College baseball players are included in the selection of the all-Jesuit college baseball team, chosen from the teams at Fordham, Holy Cross and Georgetown. An unusually strong team has been picked and tonight the interest in the intercollegiate circles centres in the showing the all-Jesuit nine would make against the winners in either the National or American leagues. The players selected are: Duffy, of Georgetown, and Larikin, of Holy Cross, both of whom are of Fordham, Cantwell, of Georgetown, and Dowd, of Holy Cross, pitchers; McDonald, of Georgetown, first base; Coffey, of Fordham, shortstop; Scheels, of Fordham, third base; Simon, of Georgetown, left field; Murray, of Georgetown, centre field; Scannlon, of Fordham, right field.

In making a silver dollar the die is given a pressure of 160 tons to the square inch, while one of 155 tons is given to the double eagle.

Artie Romer after being knocked out of the box in New Haven on Monday was sent in again yesterday against the same team, and was lucky to come out with a victory. As it was Artie did not have anything on the ball, the visitors hitting him quite freely having a delayed rally in the ninth inning which looked like the goods. For New Haven Reiselgi essayed to pitch, letting the Orators down without a hit until the sixth, when his arm gave out. The Orators made only five hits, but with good sacrificing and base running made everyone count. For the first five innings the game was largely a pitcher's battle, with the odds greatly in favor of Reiselgi, who would not let the Orators put the ball outside of the line.

It was in the sixth when the music started. Steinhauser, the first Orator up was given his base on balls. Reiselgi attempted to sacrifice, but the attempt went for a hit, as the ball just went over Sherwood's head, that player having run in from third. Cy Miller was given the signal to lay down a sacrifice, but after two attempts which went for fouls he sent the sphere into center field for a clear single. Steinhauser scoring and Romer going to third. Bannan struck out, but Frank Hilt scored both Romer and Miller on a hit into center. Hilt was out trying to steal second. Ladd ended the inning by flying out to Connell. New Haven in the seventh, scored one run. Pleiss, first up dropped one in front of the plate, reaching first before the throw. Smith struck out. Waters sent one at Hilt which that player fumbled. Hilt recovering the ball made a bluff to throw out Waters at first. Pleiss thinking that he would throw the ball to Plehan went on to second. Pleiss seeing his mistake beat it back for second, but Hilt threw to Bourquin in time to catch the runner. Reiselgi followed the play with a safe hit into right field. Ambros hit into left scoring Waters. Connell was passed. The fans were now demanding the taking out of Romer as a hit would tie the score. With three on the bags, Havel sent one to Bannan which that player easily guered in.

New Haven started to do things again in the eighth. Zacher went out, short to first. Sherwood drew his second base. Pleiss scored the third run in a hit to center field. Smith hit towards second but Bourquin by quick work knocked the ball down in time to throw to Hilt to catch Pleiss at second and then to Plehan to gather in Smith, completing one of the prettiest of double plays. The Orators were not content with their three runs in the sixth, but kept going in the seventh. Plehan sent the ball into center for his first hit of the season; Bourquin sacrificed towards Reiselgi, who had plenty of time to catch Plehan at second, but the throw was wild, the ball rolling into center, both players taking an extra base. Kocher scored both men with a beauty single into right. Steinhauser sacrificed, Kocher going to second, and then stealing third. Romer struck out.

New Haven kept going strong and looked like a sure winner in the ninth, as Romer was ascending. Waters went out on a fly to Ladd. Reiselgi made his third hit of the game, this time the well being good for two sacks. Sherwood walked, but went out when Connell hit to Hilt, who threw to Bourquin at second. The throw to complete the double arrived too late. Havel hit to right for two sacks, scoring Reiselgi and Connell. Zacher's hit to right scored Havel. The score was now 6-4 with a New Haven man on base and "Dutch" Sherwood at the bat. The crowds that were now leaving the stands returned to watch the play, as an extra inning was looked for. Sherwood hit a hard one on Romer which got by that player, but Frank Hilt was on the job, nailing the sphere over to first. Umpire Callan calling Sherwood out on a very close play. The score:

Connecticut League

Hartford made it six straight yesterday by defeating Northampton in a 2-1 game, but they had to travel pretty swiftly to do it, as the Meadowlarks at all stages of the game threatened to overthrow the Naps with a deluge of head work when the Hartford players were on the bases lost the game for the Meadowlarks. Hartford have a wide-awake snappy game making the most of every chance. The score: Hartford 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—2—5—1 Northampton 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—1—4 Batteries: Evans and Abrogast; Peterson and Bridges.

Pitcher Files of Holyoke was batted out of the box in New Britain yesterday by the Perfectos. Reiger succeeded him but did not do much better. A total of six hits were made off Files is playing 3,000 points. At the 18-1 balk line game he will allow the new champion a handicap of 600 points, trying to make 3,000 points while Morningstar is making 2,400.

ANTI-RACING LAW TO BE KILLED (Special from United Press.) Hot Springs, Ark., May 5.—All turfmen are rejoicing to-day, for it is expected that the anti-racing bill will be killed before the legislature adjourns next Wednesday. The Senate passed a repeal of the bill yesterday. The House has yet to vote on it.

Ogden, Utah, May 5.—The Ogden Racing association open their 15 day spring meet to-day with six first class races. The principal race is the Fall-streak handicap in which nine horses are entered.

ROMER WAS WEAK BUT MEN BEHIND SAVED THE DAY

Bone's Elm City Outfit Was Near Victory at Several Stages.

Artie Romer after being knocked out of the box in New Haven on Monday was sent in again yesterday against the same team, and was lucky to come out with a victory.
